
12

Qualifications of Persons Preparing EIR

The Templeton Planning Group (TPG) is an interdisciplinary planning and environmental consulting firm offering a full spectrum of environmental services. The staff of TPG has been involved with the preparation of hundreds of environmental impact reports since the initiation of the California Environmental Quality Act.

Preparation of this Environmental Impact Report was the primary responsibility of the following individuals:

- Peter Templeton
Principal B.S., City and Regional Planning - 1972
California State Polytechnic University, San Luis Obispo
- William Halligan, Esq.
Director of Environmental Services B.A., Social Ecology - 1988
University of California, Irvine
J.D., Chapman University School of Law - 1999
- Nicole Morse
Project Planner B.S., Applied Ecology - 1999
University of California, Irvine
- Debra Einstein
Project Planner B.A., Environmental Analysis and Design - 1999
University of California, Irvine