HISTORY REPAINTS ITSELF

History Repaints Itself is a group exhibition that pays tribute to innovative masters of the past through reimagined or referenced renditions of iconic and classical art. This educational project will challenge viewers to contemplate art history and its contemporary influence.

History Repaints Itself is curated by Kimberly McKinnis (Day Job Projects), winner of the Orange County Curator Challenge (OC³), Viewer's Choice Award. She is pursuing a Master's degree in exhibition design from California State University, Fullerton and is also the Exhibitions Coordinator for the Titan Student Union Galleries.
