HIGH SCHOOL ART EXHIBITION

The High School Art Exhibition is a multimedia show featuring art produced by students from Irvine high schools. Artwork includes drawing, painting, printmaking, photography, digital media, ceramics and sculpture.

High School Art Exhibition juror Torrey Cook has organized and produced exhibitions and art events in California for more than a decade, including several exhibitions that have traveled the globe. In 2010, Torrey founded her first brick-and-mortar gallery Artists Republic 4 Tomorrow. She has since curated more than 100 exhibitions in her galleries in Laguna Beach and Anaheim. Torrey has also developed several public art projects throughout Southern California, including the 15,000 square foot Vans x Tilly's Zio Ziegler mural alongside Interstate 405 in Irvine; La Sierra University Art Department murals; and the 17 large-scale murals at the Anaheim Garden Walk, which was awarded Best Place for Public Art by Orange Coast Magazine, OC Weekly and the Anaheim Arts Council. OC Weekly named Torrey the Best Curator in 2016, and Artists Republic the Best Gallery in 2017.
