HIGH SCHOOL
ART EXHIBITION

The annual High School Art Exhibition highlights the outstanding young creatives who call Irvine home. Every year, the exhibition includes drawing, painting, printmaking, sculpture, photography, digital media, and mixed media. This year's exhibition, guest juried by Threadwinners, will carry forward a tradition of celebrating and supporting young artists as they develop their aesthetic language.

About the jurors:

Threadwinners are an Orange County duo comprised of Liz Flynn and Alyssa Arney. Their crochet and knitting-based art practice explores the role of craft in art history and contemporary art. In addition to maintaining an active studio practice, they are also passionate about arts education and making art accessible to broad audiences.
