ABOUT

The annual High School Art Exhibition highlights some of the outstanding talents of Irvine's youngest emerging artists. Artworks span genres, mediums, themes and styles, presenting an exciting glimpse into the minds of the creatives of tomorrow. Participating schools in this year's exhibition include Beckman High School, Crean Lutheran High School, Irvine High School, Portola High School, University High School, and Woodbridge High School.

GUEST JUROR

Virginia Broersma is a Los Angeles-based artist whose engagement with the art community involves curating, writing, collaborative projects, public art, and organizing support for artists, along with her studio practice. She has exhibited at museums, galleries, and alternative spaces in Los Angeles, Berlin, Tokyo, New York, and Chicago, among other U.S. and international cities.

THANK YOU

This exhibition is made possible with the support of dozens of dedicated teachers and the creative work of the featured student artists.
