ART at City Hall

HIGH SCHOOL ART EXHIBITION

March 14–July 15

The annual High School Art Exhibition celebrates the creativity, unique perspectives, and talents of Irvine's budding artists. Featuring paintings, drawings, photography, graphic design, and mixed media works, the selection of art on view reflects the ambitiousness and diversity of the creatives of tomorrow.

ABOUT THE GUEST JUROR:

Sydney Walters received her Bachelor of Fine Arts degree from Biola University and her Master of Fine Arts degree from Claremont Graduate University. Besides maintaining a studio practice, she is a contributing art writer and educator. She was a fellow at the Armory Center for the Arts, Pasadena, California, as well as a recipient of several academic grants and fellowships. Her work has been exhibited at University of California, Los Angeles; California State University Long Beach; Irvine Fine Arts Center; and other exhibition spaces.
