CITY OF IRVINE

OFFICE SOUGHT: Mayor

WARD/DISTRICT # _____ (If applicable)

NAME: Branda Lin

AGE:
(Optional)

OCCUPATION: Paralegal/Mother

I have called Irvine my home since birth. I am the daughter of working-class parents who immigrated from South Korea. I attended Irvine public schools and earned my undergraduate degree here at the University of California, Irvine. Now, I am a proud mother to two children who play in the same parks I enjoyed as a child.

My life has been shaped by Irvine's remarkable growth and transformation, and I have a vested interest in maintaining our quality of life.

For two years, I served our city as a Community Services Commissioner, overseeing Irvine's parks, recreation, and community programs. I also co-founded Irvine Watchdog, a non-profit organization dedicated to spotlighting city issues and holding elected leaders accountable.

I'm well-versed in the challenges we face – from inadequate shade structures in our parks to asphalt plant pollution; haphazard planning and insufficient retail in the Great Park; and high electricity rates without adequate notification from the scandal-ridden OCPA. We look for clarity and accountability from our city government. Instead, we find misdirection, questionable ethics, and disregard for resident concerns. This must end.

Join me to implement responsible development, rebuild public trust, and restore ethical leadership to our city.
