The annual High School Art Exhibition returns to Irvine City Hall, highlighting the creativity of the City's emerging youth artists. The exhibition features a curated selection of multimedia visual artworks from local Irvine high school-aged students ranging from drawings, photographs, print-based works, digital media, ceramics, mixed media, and sculpture. This year's exhibition is guest juried by artist Francisco Javier Palomares who has selected six recipients to receive awards for outstanding technical and creative achievement in their artwork.
