Festival

Join us for 3,000 years of tradition.

The 2023 Mid-Autumn Festival is a traditional festival celebrated by many East and Southeast Asian communities. You're invited to celebrate this honored tradition with friends and family at the Great Park, enjoying live musical and dance performances, cultural exhibits, and a festive atmosphere.

Local community partners will be in attendance to support the event and share organizational information and resources. This event is free, open to all ages, and no registration is required.
