Paul Gardner: A Retrospective

December 11–March 24

Exhibition Opening: Thursday, January 11, 4–6 p.m.

For over two decades, the late Paul Gardner contributed to the cultural landscape of Irvine by teaching painting at the Irvine Fine Arts Center. Gardner's artistic creations offer a contemporary and abstract interpretation of our world, capturing the essence of fluidity, forms, and vitality. Whether inspired by water's graceful flow or the dynamic energy of music, sound, and movement, his work transports viewers to immersive environments.

Through a celebratory exploration of his life's work, Paul Gardner: A Retrospective showcases the deep connection Gardner had with his surroundings showcasing his unique blend of intuition and improvisation, inviting us to embark on an imaginative journey alongside him.
