

JACKIE KANAGE: 39

Small Businessowner/Mother

I'm Jackie Kan, and I'm running for City Council because I love our city. I'm committed to keeping Irvine safe, preserving our beautiful open spaces, and making sure residents' voices are heard in City Hall.

My love for Irvine began during my undergraduate years at UCI, and I've seen how much the city has evolved over the last twenty years. We are now at a pivotal moment in our city's growth, and we need thoughtful planning, robust infrastructure and a strong city council to support the Irvine of the next twenty years and beyond.

I believe in a life dedicated to service, which is why I volunteer for organizations that support survivors of sex trafficking, and I'm a member of the Irvine Community Emergency Response Team, a program that prepares residents for emergencies such as fire disasters.

Professionally, I work for a medical device company and also own a small business that operates out of Irvine.

As Councilmember, I will advocate for residents and prioritize safety, childcare and services that enhance Irvine's exceptional quality of life. Our community deserves a councilmember who will listen with empathy and work to uplift residents. Join me in shaping Irvine's future.
