Michelle Andrade: Everything's Fine

March 1–May 24

Exhibition Opening: March 1, 2–4 p.m.

Everything's Fine, a solo presentation of work by Michelle Andrade, features work in mixed-media, drawing, and book form, all of which are colored by the artist's discrete use of humor, irony, and sensitivity in attempting to make sense of the tensions of daily life. The artist's signature use of text — whether camouflaged in vivid and complex compositions or simply presented on the cover of a book — invites viewers to pause for deeper consideration about underlying subtexts. Works on view in Everything's Fine exploit the duality at the heart of aphorisms and mantras that are deceptively cheerful and earnestly bittersweet.

Michelle Andrade is a Los Angeles-based artist who works in a range of media including paper and ink, acrylic, book form, and edible sculptures. She earned her Master of Fine Arts from Otis College of Art and Design, Los Angeles, and a Bachelor of Arts from The School of the Art Institute, Chicago.
