

LANGUAGE FROM IMMIGRANT LEGAL RESOURCE CENTER

The Immigrant Legal Resource Center compiled this language to help people assert their rights and defend themselves against unconstitutional actions.

“

I do not wish to speak with you, answer your questions, or sign or hand you any documents based on my 5th Amendment rights under the United States Constitution.

I do not give you permission to enter my home based on my 4th Amendment rights under the United States Constitution unless you have a warrant to enter, signed by a judge or magistrate that you slide under the door.

I do not give you permission to search any of my belongings based on my 4th Amendment rights.

I choose to exercise my constitutional rights.

YOU HAVE CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS

Everyone — both documented and undocumented persons — has rights in this country.

Make sure you and others know what to do if approached by U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) officers.

Inform your family members (even children), housemates, neighbors, and co-workers, regardless of their immigration status, of their right to remain silent and all of these rights if ICE or the police come to your home, neighborhood, or workplace.

You have the right to remain silent.

You can refuse to speak to an ICE agent. Do not answer any questions, especially about your birth place, immigration status, or how you entered the United States. Say that you want to remain silent until you speak with a lawyer.

You have the right to demand a warrant before letting anyone into your home.

Do not open your door to authorities without a warrant. You do not need to open the door unless an ICE agent shows you a warrant signed by a judge with your specific and correct address on it. If they say they have one, do not open the door for them to show it to you. Ask them to slip it under the door or through a window.

You have the right to speak to a lawyer and the right to make a phone call.

You have the right to refuse to sign anything before you talk to a lawyer. Do not sign anything. That could eliminate your right to speak with a lawyer or have a hearing in front of an immigration judge. This may result in you being deported immediately without a hearing.

You have the right to refuse to show any documents before speaking with a lawyer.

Remain calm and do not try to run away. If you do, ICE or the police may use that against you.
